THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY TO-DAY

Heavy Votes Will be Polled in All of the States.

THE SITUATION IN NEW YORK.

General Sentiment is That Morton Will be Elected Governor and That the Tammany Tiger will be Slaughtered in the City--Big Odds Given by Betting Men on Republican Success in the State--Other States--Republicans Will Make Gains Even in Kentucky--Ohio All Night.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.--"On the eve of battle; resting under arms," and similar phrases were current at the various political headquarters to-day in the place of news. Most of these places were nearly deserted, as many of the managers have left them for their home districts, where they will work and vote to-morrow. An exception to the rule was the case of Chairman Hackett, at the Republican state headquarters in the Fifth Avenue Hotel, who, having paired votes with a friend in Utica, will remain here until after election. He said to-day that nothing had occurred to change the estimates of Republican success already made public. On the other hand, Chairman Thacher, at Democratic state headquarters, before leaving for Albany this afternoon, gave out an estimate that Morton would not have more than 40,000 plurality above the Harlem river, and that to overcome this Hill would have pluralities of over 60,000 in this city, at least 10,000 in Kings county and from 1,000 to 1,200 in Richmond county. Mr. Thacher, however, admitted that Eric county, which the Hill men have been claiming for some 7,000 votes, was at best doubtful.

Confident claims are made by both sides on the local issue. The supporters of the committee of seventy ticket predict that Tammany will be drowned by a "tidal wave," and say that, for this reason, all estimates of figures on the local result are worthless. At the headquarters of Hugh J. Grant this afternoon, the Tammany candidate for mayor, issued a statement in which he asserts that "to-morrow the Democrats of the city of New York will give an overwhelming plurality for the state ticket, headed by David B. Hill, and the county ticket headed by myself." Mr. Grant declares that the Lexow committee has "finally thrown aside the cloak of anxiety for the public good, and has appeared, just as the Fawcett committee appeared in the week before election day in 1890, as an utterly partisan Republican body."

In predicting to-day the success of the anti-Tammany ticket, Campaign Manager Jerome, of the committee of seventy, said he believed the voters would get to the polls early, and he was sure that in this event the seventy's candidates would win by overwhelming majorities. Great interest is taken by all politicians and by voters generally in the subject of the weather to-morrow. Despite to-day's storm the weather bureau predicts clear and cooler weather for election, and it is believed that the fulfillment of this prophecy will be worth thousands of votes to the Republicans. An important step which will tend materially to an honest election was taken to-day by Superintendent Byrnes, who ordered that all the policemen on duty at the polls to-morrow shall do no talking to precincts where they do not regularly belong. This, it is believed, will prevent improper acts by the police under the influence of election officers and others with whom they are personally familiar and friendly.

There was a good deal of heavy betting at the St. James and other up-town hotels to-day and also in Stock Exchange circles. The general odds are 5 to 2 on Morton as against Hill and about 5 to 4 in favor of Strong against Grant. Of course there was considerable variation in the terms of the various wagers, but the odds noted were about the average. There was little betting on pluralities.

The Betting in New York. NEW YORK, Nov. 5.--The following bets have been made on the stock exchange to-day:

$2,500 to $5,000 on Grant against Strong; $5,000 to $20,000 on Morton; 1 to 5 is offered that Strong will win by 50,000; 3 to 1 is offered on Morton against Hill.

Betting on the election went on at a lively rate in the up-town hotels. Charles Heinemann bet $500 on Grant against "Butch" Thompson's $1,000, and there were a number of bets in the club made in the same way, aggregating $10,000. Ike Thompson placed $1,400 on Hill against $4,000.

The St. James hotel was the chief resort for the political betters. During the day money representing a total betting of $14,400 was placed in the hands of Clerk Simpson by "Circular Joe" Vending, whose money is on the Hill side. J. J. Martyn, a Western Union telegraph operator, who is said to be placing money for George Gould, was a prominent figure about the St. James, Delmonico's and other places. A sample bet he made was laying $100 against $500 that Morton would have 10,000 plurality. A wall street man took the bet. He also bet $500 to $400 on Strong.

Walbaum had $20,000 to bet. He registered a bet of $10,000 to $4,000 that Morton would be elected. Walbaum also bet $10,000 to $4,000 with a broker named Taylor that Morton would be elected.

Louis B. Jones bet $7,000 to $2,000 that Morton would win. This was the best odds yet given on Morton.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 5.--The election here to-morrow is only for minor state and local offices, in addition to Congressmen. The present Ohio delegation in Congress consists of eleven Democrats and ten Republicans. Sorg, in the Third, Richie in the Ninth, Outwaite in the Twelfth, Johnson in the twentieth and others considered doubtful of re-election.

IN NEBRASKA.

Fusionists and Republicans Both Claim the State by Good Majorities.

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 5.--The campaign which closed to-night is admitted to be the bitterest affair of the kind in Nebraska's history. In all parts of the state it wound up with enthusiastic rallies. The elements of uncertainty are more numerous in the contest to-morrow than Nebraska has ever known. The fusion-Democratic-Republicans claim the election of their state ticket by 10,000 and the Republicans claim success for their state ticket by 10,000.

In the congressional districts the fusionists are certain of electing two members of the lower house, Kem and McKeighan. In the first district the fight will be close, but the indications are favorable to Strode, the Republican. In the second district Mercer may be elected over Boyd, Democrat, because of the refusal of the Populist nominee, Deaver, to withdraw. Owing to the fact that the fight in the Third district is three-cornered, the adherents of Meikeljohn are very confident that he will be re-elected, although the other candidates are not conceding much. In the fourth district the fight is close between Stark, fusionist, and Hainer, Republican.

The legislature will, from present indications, be close between the fusionists and the Republicans.

It is doubtful whether the result on any office will be known before Wednesday night, as owing to the distance from telegraph stations of a number of the counties, the returns will have to be carried by mounted messengers for many miles.

HARRISON'S STATE.

Indiana Claimed by Both Parties--Betting Favors the Republicans.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., Nov. 5.--Both sides are confident of carrying Indiana. Chairman Taggart, of the Democratic state committee, said to-night: "There is not the least doubt in my mind that the Democrats will carry the state, the county, township and if there was a city election on hand there wouldn't be a Republican in the city government. I have heard a great many times that this is a Republican year, but I am going to tell you there are a few Democrats in this neck of the woods, and they are going to vote, and when they all vote that means something. I am confident of success."

He also claimed a majority of thirteen Congressmen. Chairman Govay, of the Republican committee, would give no figures, but he said that the state would go overwhelmingly Republican, and that more than a majority of the Congressmen would be Republicans. Concerning Bynum, he claims he will be defeated by from one to three thousand. The betting is very light, but rather in favor of the Republicans.

IN KENTUCKY.

The Chances Are for the Republicans to Make Gains.

LOUISVILLE, KY., Nov. 5.--The campaign has been one of excitement from the beginning, the Republicans being more aggressive than ever known in this state. They have nominated for all the offices to be filled. The Democrats will elect their congressional candidates in the First, Second, Fourth, Sixth and Eighth and probably in the Seventh. The latter is Breckinridge's district, in which Owens is the Democratic nominee and Judge Denny the Republican. Owens' election is made doubtful because many of the friends of Breckinridge have refused to support him. The feeling between these factions is intense and bitter.

The really doubtful districts are the Third, Fifth, Ninth, Tenth, Eleventh, the chances being about evenly divided.

In this, the Fifth, there is a suppressed feeling of excitement this evening, which forebodes trouble to-morrow. Over 100 Republican election officers have been removed and Democrats appointed to succeed them during the past forty-eight hours. The old officers were appointed to serve for a year, and as they have eleven months yet to serve, they will attempt to take forcible possession of the books, and trouble will probably result.

THE BAY STATE'S VOTE.

A Sweeping Republican Victory Conceded by Democrats.

BOSTON, MASS., Nov. 5.--Perhaps the severest storm is responsible, but there is little or no excitement in and about the hotels of the city on this, the eve of election day. There is no betting on the results in this state and the Democrats concede the election of the entire Republican ticket and eleven congressmen out of the thirteen, although they make no figures regarding the plurality of Governor Greenhalge. Hon. Josiah Quincy said to-night that he was making no predictions as to the plurality which the Republican candidate will receive. Chairman Winslow, of the Republican state committee, like Mr. Quincy, makes no predictions. Senator Lodge looks for a Republican plurality of 50,000.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 5.--Chairman Babcock, of the Republican congressional committee, to-day addressed a dispatch to Vice Chairman L. D. Appleby, of Hudson, Mass., claiming for the Republicans the certain election of 183 members of Congress, four more than a majority of the House and the probable election of 218 Republicans. The dispatch follows:

"WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 5, 1894.

"Hon. L. D. Appleby, Vice Chairman Republican Congressional Committee, Hudson, Mass.

"I have into information from all states and close congressional districts, and, without a single exception, these reports show Republican gains, and, from the latest advices, I figure upon 183 districts that will elect Republicans beyond any question, and 35 districts in which we have more than even chance to elect. I confidently believe we will have a good working majority in the next house. [Signed] "J. V. Babcock, "Chairman."

MINNESOTA'S SITUATION.

ST. PAUL, Nov. 5.--Minnesota will to-morrow elect a full state, congressional and legislative, and all three leading parties make great claims. The Republican committee claims that Governor Nelson will be re-elected, and predict a solid congressional delegation and a majority in the legislature. The Democratic committee claims that Becker will be elected by 5,000 or more; that part of the state ticket will follow him, and that at least two Congressmen will be Democrats.

The Populist committee simply claim the election of Sidney M. Owen for governor, without giving figures, express confidence in the re-election of Congressman Boen, and assert that they will hold the balance of power in the legislature. Senator Washburn's re-election is assured if the legislature is Republican.

THE LETTER NEVER CAME.

President Cleveland Has Written no Word Endorsing Hill.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 5.--A despatch from Albany, N. Y., printed to-day gives an extract from a letter purporting to have been written by President Cleveland to Robert L. Thacher upon the political situation.

It can be stated on authority that the President has not written any letter bearing upon the existing political canvass in New York state.

He is a Populist.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 5.--The following dispatch explains itself:

GOLDENRO, N. C., Nov. 5. Ex-Congressman W. H. Kitchen, who joined the Peoples' Party a few months ago, and who has canvassed the state, has just sent me a telegram denying the charge made in yesterday's papers that he had gone back to the Democratic party. He says: "I am a Populist and will not vote the Democratic ticket."

(Signed) "MARION BUTLER, Chairman Peoples' Party State Executive Committee."

MR. FOX ANSWERS

The Register's Desperate Break About That Card Yesterday.

To the Editor of the Intelligencer.

SIR:--In regard to the editorial in yesterday's Register, alleging that the signers of the card relative to Mr. Whitaker's treatment of his employees published in yesterday's INTELLIGENCER were intimidated or compelled to sign the card, I desire to say that first I am a Democrat; second, that at least one-half of the signers were Democrats; third, that I myself, and I know every other signer of the card signed it freely and of his own accord, without the slightest intimidation from the management or from Mr. Whitaker that they desired it. In fact, I know that Mr. Whitaker knew nothing of the card until he saw it in print.

THOMAS FOX, JR., AND MANY OTHER DEMOCRATS.

BURNING COTTON

In the Hands of Three Steamers--Fifty Thousand Dollars Loss.

SAVANNAH, GA., Nov. 5.--At half past 6 o'clock this evening fire was discovered in the hold of the cotton steamer Skidby, at the Central compass wharf. The fire was in hold No. 3, in which there was about 2,500 bales of cotton. The Skidby had about 10,000 bales aboard. She had about concluded loading and would have cleared to-morrow. The fire had gained considerable headway when discovered and at the writing is still burning.

At 6:15 it was discovered that there was fire in the cotton in the hold of the steamer Baltimore City, at the Gordon press wharf, about a mile away from the scene of the fire on the Skidby.

Alongside of the Baltimore City lay the steamer Castlegarth, and in a few minutes after the discovery that the former's cotton was afire, fire was also discovered in the forepeak of the Castlegarth, in which compartment there was about 100 bales of cotton and the seamen's clothes.

The fire on the Baltimore City was but small and was soon put out. On the Castlegarth it was more obstinate, and was not extinguished until the sailors' clothes had been burned and all the cotton in the compartment more or less damaged.

About an hour after the discovery of the fire on the Baltimore City, an alarm of fire was given from the steamer Stax, also loading at Gordon's wharf along with the Baltimore City and the Castlegarth.

This fire proved to be the most obstinate of the three at the Gordon wharf, and it is still burning. All the fires are now except those on the Stax and Skidby. Loss, as far as can be estimated at this time, is about $50,000. The ships and the cargoes are covered by insurance. As to the origin of the fires, there is no satisfactory explanation.

The Small-Pox Scare.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.--Cornelius Parker, a colored man, in the small-pox service, was stricken with the disease to-day and removed to the post house.

Ballard Morris, the principal examiner in the patent office, who to-day was reported to have the disease, was found, on inspection, to be suffering from an aggravated case of vaccination.

Several other suspicious cases were reported, but investigation showed that they were not small-pox. One of the patients at the hospital is very low, another is quite sick, but the remainder are doing well.

Smallpox Near Milwaukee.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 5.--Frederick Kesh lives near Muskegoe Lake, nineteen miles southwest of this city, four miles from Hales Corners and three miles from Josch's Corners. Two of his children died Thursday of smallpox and one on Saturday. Several of the others and the mother are now sick.

DAYTON'S DAY.

The Gallant Young Opponent of the Great Free Trade Leader

ENDS HIS CANVASS AT FAIRMONT

Amid Unbounded Enthusiasm For the Cause of Protection.

A WONDERFUL OVATION TENDERED

Him, in Spite of Bad Weather--A Great Procession--Thousands of People Rally to His Standard--Wilson Closes at Grafton Opera House, While the Republicans Hold a Grand Meeting a Square Away. Republican Committee Claims Dayton's Election by Eight Hundred Plurality--The Figures.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

FAIRMONT, W. VA., Nov. 5.--Notwithstanding the rain and damp weather to-day Fairmont witnessed by all odds the largest, most magnificent assembling of people seen here during this truly wonderful campaign. Early in the morning people began to come into town in parties, in wagons and on horseback by the hundreds, and when the town seemed to be full to overflowing and the procession was already too large for the town, Winfield and Union districts capped the whole affair by turning out over 1,000 men on horses and in carriages to add to the already immense parade. The crowd was estimated to be more than 6,000.

At 11 o'clock the parade started headed by Col. A. Howard Fleming, chief marshal, and the Dayton Four Hundred Marching Club, followed by the delegations from each district of the county. Each district was represented by a large body of horsemen and carriages with a brass band and altogether it was a wonderful turn-out of earnest, sincere Americans, determined to show their disapproval of the actions of the present congressmen from this district. Fully three thousand people joined in the parade and it extended for a length of nearly two miles, completely encircling both Fairmont and Palatine.

At 1:30 Hon. John Jarrett, of Pittsburgh, was introduced and was received by an immense enthusiastic cheering crowd of Republicans. He spoke for nearly an hour in the face of a cold rain, which did not seem in the least to effect the enthusiasm of his audience, which was boundless. At the conclusion of Mr. Jarrett's speech Mr. A. G. Dayton appeared upon the platform and for several minutes nothing could be heard but "Dayton, Dayton, Dayton!" Mr. Dayton was so hoarse as to be unable to speak for any length of time, but the crowd refused to allow him to leave and all crowded around to shake his hand.

It was only by the greatest difficulty that the crowd was persuaded not to carry him bodily to the opera house on their shoulders, to which the rain finally compelled the assembly to adjourn. After the adjournment to the opera house Hon. G. W. Atkinson, John W. Mason and others addressed the crowd, while the wildest enthusiasm prevailed all through the city. Profuse decorations, horns, drums, all were in evidence, and the utter absence of any drunkenness or disorder made the meeting a wonderful contrast to the carousal held here Saturday by the Democrats. Fairmont never in her history received such a magnificent turnout for a political party.

Never before has this county been so thoroughly canvassed by both parties. Republicans have it all their own way, however, and Dayton will carry the county by at least 300 majority. A pleasing incident occurred at the end of the exercises at the opera house, when Chairman E. M. Snowwater presented in a delightful little speech to Mr. Dayton a beautiful floral piece built of cut flowers on behalf of the young ladies of Fairmont, who wished to show by some means their loyalty to Mr. Dayton.

THEIR WIND-UP.

Wilson and Dayton Each Ends His Campaign in Grafton--Both Have Great Meetings--Dayton's Election Predicted by His Committee by a Magnificent Plurality--How It is Estimated.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

GRAFTON, W. VA., Nov. 5.--William L. Wilson made his last speech here to-night in this campaign. It has been his custom in former campaigns to close in Grafton. It has been the last speech he has made in seven consecutive campaigns for a return to Congress. The finger of destiny points to his defeat to-morrow. The "signs of the times" forebadow it. While he was speaking to-night, the Republicans were holding a meeting where enthusiasm overleapt all bounds and men cheered and yelled like mad. Dayton was there. To-morrow it will be Congressman Dayton, Mr. Wilson and his chairman, Col. John T. McGraw, spoke at the opera house. The building was crowded. It was the last grand rally for free trade and William London Wilson and great preparations were made for it. There was a large number of ladies in the audience and they adorned the stage, too, by their presence there.

In his speech Mr. Wilson appeared to disadvantage unusual heretofore. He seemed haunted by visions like those that aroused Richard III from his slumbers on the Bosworth battle-field and told him of the crushing defeat on the morrow. He was embarrassed. His speech was a pitiful appeal. Its burden was the trusts and Republican "boodles."

He intimated that he feared defeat and prepared the way by charging it up to Republican "boodles" in this campaign, notwithstanding the fact the Democrats have used ten dollars to one on the other side. He said if he were beaten the cause of Democracy would go on and some other man as good would take his place. At this point somebody cried out the name of Dayton. The closing Republican rally was held here Saturday, when Mr. Dayton made an extended speech. The meeting to-night was gotten up since noon to-day. It was held in the court house. There were hundreds on the outside who could not gain an admittance, so great was the jam. Hon. G. W. Atkinson, of Wheeling, and John H. Holt, of Grafton, made stirring speeches and predicted victory for Dayton and protection. Wild calls were made for Dayton. He spoke a few moments and the ovation that was given him was such as a great military hero might receive fresh from the field of battle, bearing his trophies with him. Altogether it has been the greatest night of political excitement ever known in Grafton. The Republican congressional committee gave your correspondent their figures to-night. Dayton's election is claimed by 825 plurality. The majorities by counties are as follows:

Barbour	Dayton's Plurality.	Wilson's Plurality.
Berkley	250
Hampshire	850	1250
Hardy	800
Jefferson	1600
Marion	200
Mineral	175
Monongalia	800
Morgan	400	250
Pendleton	1750
Preston	700
Handolph	425
Taylor	175
Tucker	5125	4000

Dayton's plurality 825.

Chairman McGraw, of Wilson's committee, is game to the last. He is, of course, claiming Wilson's election, but every factor of the situation clearly proves it a desperate claim. Mr. Wilson leaves here on the 4:05 train in the morning for Charles Town.

THIRD DISTRICT.

The Outlook Very Favorable to Republicans--It Looks Like Huling Will be Elected.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

CHARLESTON, W. VA., Nov. 5.--To-night everything points to a Republican triumph to-morrow. Gains are expected in Logan, Boone, McDowell and Kanawha counties. Democrats claim gains in Clay, Fayette and Pocahontas. In Boone both sides claim gains. Little change is expected in other counties. The Republicans claim Kanawha by from twelve to fifteen hundred, while Democrats give Huling from five to eight hundred. A big meeting was held to-night, addressed by Hon. William Seymour Edwards, L. A. Martin and others, and enthusiasm was at fever heat. Bets are being made even on one thousand plurality for Huling, while bets on Alderson's election, no plurality given, are also being offered and taken. The Democrats generally claim that Alderson will come to Kanawha with one thousand plurality, while Republicans claim Huling and Alderson will come here neck and neck. Kanawha is certain for a Republican majority, with Huling leading the ticket, but never before was there so much uncertainty as to the figures. Undercurrents are working on both sides and the result will only be known when the returns are received.

How "Junior" Stands.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

KINGWOOD, W. VA., Nov. 5.--A special from here to the Register yesterday is misleading. William G. Brown is supporting William London Wilson for Congress, but that support has a mask on it. Junior thinks that Mr. Wilson will be beaten or will be chosen in Camden's place in the senate, and thus "We us & Co." can get to Congress via the Wilson route. One thing is certain, "Junior" was not supporting Wilson according to the queen's taste when a Democratic pastmaster was chosen for Kingwood.

"REPUBLICAN BOODLE."

An Error in Telegraphing Causes the Intelligencer to Make a Mistatement. Democratic Roarback Nailed Just the Same.

In yesterday's INTELLIGENCER appeared a special dispatch from Grafton in reference to the Democratic roarback from the same place printed in the Register charging that the Republican committee in the Second district was attempting to corrupt the voters of Hampshire county with money. The Register's story charged that a vast amount of money had been sent to Hampshire for that purpose. The INTELLIGENCER's dispatch stated that it was positively known that three thousand dollars in corruption money had been sent to the county by the Democratic boodlers, and also declared on the authority of the Republican committee that only $1,000 of Republican money had been sent to pay legitimate campaign expenses.

It should have read $100, the error being due to a mistake in the transmission of the telegram. The fact of the matter is, the Republican committee in the Second district had no such sum as $1,000 to send to Hampshire county, or any other county, as they have been pushed hard to raise enough money to pay expenses. That the error in printing $1,000 instead of $100, the proper amount, was made, is evidenced by the following telegram received from Manager A. T. Cline, of the Western Union Telegraph Company at Grafton:

GRAFTON, W. VA., Nov. 5.

Sir:--In a special dispatch dated at Grafton November 4, and printed in the first column on the first page of the Wheeling Daily INTELLIGENCER of this date, November 5th, it is said: "Your correspondent is authorized by the Republican congressional committee to state that but one thousand dollars has been sent to Hampshire county."

An examination of the original copy as filed in this office shows the figures $1,000 (one thousand) as printed, should be $100 (one hundred). It is plainly written "one hundred" in figures and should have been so transmitted and printed.

A. T. CLINE, Manager Western Union Telegraph.

Sued for Libel.

MANASSAS, O., Nov. 5.--This afternoon Calvin E. Martin, Democratic county commissioner, sued W. S. Campbell, proprietor of the News, a Republican paper, for $25,000 damages. Saturday the defendant's paper contained an item insinuating that Martin, who was appointed to succeed a Republican commissioner, who was killed, paid $700 for the appointment.

THE WAR MAY END.

China Said to Have Asked the Powers to Arbitrate

THE DISPUTE WITH THE JAPANESE.

The Chinese Ambassador Asks Europe to Swo For Peace--The Terms Are That Korea be Allowed to Remain an Independent Power. Indications That the War in the Orient Will Come to an End.

LONDON, Nov. 6.--The Daily News says that the Chinese minister has imparted to the foreign office the Chinese desire that the powers mediate with Japan for a peace. The minister has gone to Paris to make a similar request of France.

In a leader commenting on the foregoing the Daily News says that the Chinese have approached the powers with terms of peace she will offer Japan. This is a formal renewal on a larger scale of the overtures made to the queen's ministers a month ago. Lord Rosebery's course could not have been more completely and conclusively vindicated. No European power can well desire to prolong this disastrous conflict. Even the United States, despite the Monroe doctrine, must be concerned for the regularity and security of their great trade with Japan. It will be difficult to contend that interference is premature now.

China Wants Peace.

ROME, Nov. 5.--A dispatch received from Peking states that China is disposed to conclude a peace with Japan on the basis of a guarantee of the independence of Korea and the payment of an indemnity, the amount to be fixed by the powers. The dispatch adds that it is reported that China has invited the representatives of the powers to intervene to secure peace.

Li Hung Transferred.

SHANGHAI, Nov. 5.--It is stated that Viceroy Li Hung Chang, instead of taking command of the first Chinese army as it was said he had been ordered to do, has been transferred from Tien Tain to Peking.

EXCLUSION OF CATTLE

From America by the German Government--The Agrarian League Wants it Made Sweeping.

LONDON, Nov. 6.--A dispatch to the Times from Berlin says that the Agrarian League has presented a memorial to Chancellor Von Hohenlohe, requesting him to exclude all American cattle shipped to Germany on October 28. The memorial demands that the cattle be returned to the United States, and that after unloading, the ships that brought them to Germany be quarantined. Though the efforts of the Hon. Theodore Runyon, the American ambassador, to obtain a repeal of the measure forbidding the importation of American cattle have failed, further attempts will be made to arrive at an understanding with the government on the matter.

An Unpleasant Incident.

VIENNA, Nov. 5.--There was a noisy scene in the reichsrath to-day. The president of the house delivered an onlogy on the late czar. During his address the Polish members hotly protested against his praise of the dead emperor. Finally the greater number of the Polish members withdrew from the chamber. The incident was an unpleasant one for the government and Emperor Francis Joseph is likely to take it as a personal offense.

A Progressive Czar.

ODESSA, Nov. 5.--A firm belief prevails here that Czar Nicholas will partially or totally abolish the press censorship.

IT IS IDLE.

The Finishing Department of the Edgar Thomson Steel Works.

BRADDOCK, PA., Nov. 5.--The finishing department of the Edgar Thomson steel works is idle and a complete suspension may follow. The rail straighteners were told this morning that the telegraphers were to be dispensed with, and the straighteners would be required to do the extra work without additional compensation. The straighteners thereupon quit work and appointed a committee to carry their grievance to Chairman Frick. About 150 men are now affected and should a compromise not be made, the entire plant will have to close down.

Tragedy in Georgia.

AMERICUS, GA., Nov. 5.--Saturday night, Mr. Kennedy, a farmer living eight miles in the country, while going home intoxicated stopped at the home of his brother-in-law, Milton Hart.

After knocking some time at the door and refusing to answer when asked "Who's there?" the door was opened by Mr. Hart's son, Mr. Hart being ready to defend his home with a gun. Kennedy rushed into the house as soon as the door was opened and was shot by Mr. Hart. He died yesterday.

Killed the Proprietor.

JASPER, IND., Nov. 5.--The sawmill of Rummels & Company, of Duff, Ind., blew up to-day. Mr. Rummels was killed and several of the employees were badly injured. Rummels came from Whitley county about three years ago.

Steamship Arrivals.

New York--Trave from Bremen. Liverpool--Indiana from Philadelphia.

Weather Forecast for To-day.

For West Virginia, Western Pennsylvania and Ohio, generally fair during Tuesday; northwest winds.
